A Successful Case Study on Rita Naik

Name- Rita Naik aged about 33 years. Her husband name is Rajkishore Naik, At-Charadgadia, Po- Sibapur, Dist- Dhenkanal. She had married before 16 years ago. She has 2 sons, one of them is 15 years and another is 12 years old. Last three months, her husband was drinking alcohol and conflict with her when she rose complain about his extra marital affairs. She was tortured both physically and mentally by her husband. She informed her parents but they were not able to help at that time.

After that she could not tolerate the torture and approached to one stop center for her support and stay. The one stop centre of Dhenkanal has referred her to Swadhar Greh, NYSASDRI for her better accommodation, health check-up, safety & security. After several counseling, she told to talk with her husband, while making telephone conversation, her husband agreed with all the condition and came to NYSASDRI for further discussion. He presented at NYSASDRI campus for mutual solution of the matter. The counselor had counseled her husband in the presence of Rita family member after that he had accepted his wife and agreed with all conditions of his wife. Further arranged counseling session for both parties for mutual understanding of each other and both parties were signed the agreement paper and then settlement was completed. After some days Swadhar Greh staff had followed up Rita Naik case over the phone and found that she is happy and living peacefully in her home.

As far as we know that the whole country is now plagued by the Corona epidemic. Under such circumstances, when the general public is facing a lot of difficulties, the problems of people with disabilities are very high.

The self help program is helping to persons with differentially able in the financial assistance, counseling, vocational training, group efforts etc to them through this group. At the meeting, they were instructed to deposit a hundred rupees in the group's bank account, which could be very useful for them in future.

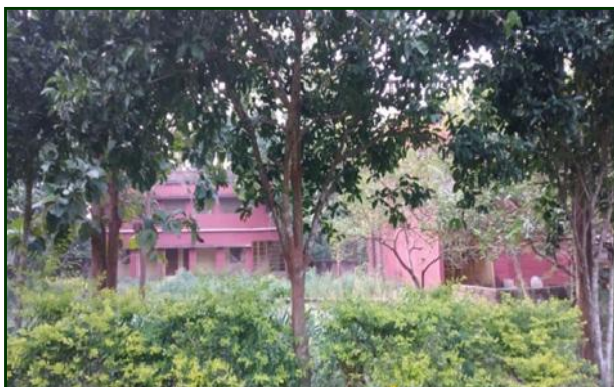

They were also warned to be vigilant about the Corona epidemic and always take safety measures like use of mask, maintain social distance, regularly wash hands with hand wash, use of sanitizers, and not to go outside home without any cause etc.

Previously, we encouraged them for cultivation of vegetables in their land and inspire them with distributing different vegetable seeds. They cultivate these vegetable seeds which made them financially viable and profitable in current situation.

Counselling for reconciliation: In order to help couples with strained relations, marital discord and to provide the warring factions of the family a platform to discuss their problems and to find solutions, the scheme of Family Counselling Centres (FCCs) was launched by Government. The broad objective of the scheme is to provide preventive and rehabilitation services to women and families who were victims of atrocities, harassment and family mal-adjustments through crisis intervention and systematic counselling.

As well as during the month of October the counsellor had conducted Publicity and awareness programme through distributing leaflets, using posters, banners for sensitization to the community for check and control of women domestic violence. Awareness has been created among the ASHA, Anganwadi workers in the Integrated Child Development Scheme (ICDS) meeting at Sadar block, Village meeting organized and make aware of the existing support services in Family Counselling Centre. During the month of October the family counselling centre has enrolled 15 numbers of cases and out of 15 cases, 3 numbers of cases has been mutually solved.
